

Practice Parliamentary Debate Topics

- This house would abolish the monarchy.
- This house would promote safe sex through education at schools.
- This house believes that downloading music without permission is morally equivalent to theft.
- This house believes the internet encourages democracy.
- This house would ban religious symbols in public buildings.
- This house believes we're too late on global climate change.
- This house believes that endangered species should be protected.
- This house would further restrict smoking.
- This house would abolish nuclear weapons.
- This house would impose democracy.
- This house would explore the universe.
- This house would as the United States ban assault weapons .
- This house believes that the United States should be isolationist
- This house believes single-sex schools are good for education.
- This house would ban animal testing.
- This house believes reality television does more harm than good.
- This house would ban homework.
- This house supports the death penalty.
- This house believes university education should be free.
- This house believes the internet does more harm than good.
- This house believes in Santa Claus
- This house would raise the legal driving age to 18
- This house would ban school uniforms
- This house believes assisted suicide should be legalized.
- This house believes children should be allowed to own and use mobile phones.
- This house would ban cosmetic surgery.
- This house believes wild animals should not be kept in captivity.
- This house believes parents should stay home and look after their children.

This house believes science is a threat to humanity.

This house would ban junk food from schools.

This house would allow the sale of human organs.

This house would ban beauty contests.

This house would ban boxing.

This house would ban smoking in public areas.

This house would ban human cloning.

This house would permit the use of performance enhancing drugs in professional sports.

This house believes terrorism can be justified.

This house would make physical education compulsory.

This house would make voting compulsory.

This house would allow prisoners to vote.

This house believes marriage is an outdated institution.

This house believes the United Nations has failed.

This house believes criminal justice should focus on rehabilitation.

This house would restrict advertisements aimed at children.

This house would reinstate corporal punishment in schools.

This house would ban gambling.

This house would limit the right to bear arms.

This house believes that stay-at-home parents should be paid for their work.

This house would arm teachers.

This house would implement a Fat Tax.

This house believes religion does more harm than good.

This house would legalize prostitution.

This house would hold bullies legally responsible if their actions result in the target's death.

This house would ban lyrics that glorify a criminal lifestyle.

This house would go vegetarian.

This house believes that internet is a human right.

This house would force feed sufferers of Anorexia Nervosa.